6:30- Board Business

- We do not have a quorum for meeting, but will carry on with business
- Approval of June Agenda
- Old Business
 - Review of May Financial Activities - Courtney Filling in for Lori. Reviewed the document.
 - No questions or concerns
- New Business
 - Significant Committee Updates:
 - Communications Committee
 - Increase Capacity/Membership Committee
 - Safe and Inclusive Neighborhood Committee

7:00pm Community Meeting:

- Welcome Elected Officials --- 3-5 minutes to speak if desired (Introductions, Job titles, Roles)
 - Connie Bosen - Introduced herself.
 - Update on successes of the CV3 model which has changed it's name to "Violence Interrupters Program" or "VIP". Difficult to get reports because of what they are doing as interventions. They are connecting with many people in the neighborhood and the city council feels that this is a beneficial program.
- Heather Taminga - Keep doing good work

- The neighborhood toolkit has been updated yet again for policy and procedure, so take a look at that
- She highlighted the work of all the volunteers that make the neighborhood association boards run
- Drake Report Update – Ryan Arnold
 - School's out for summer. No major updates.
- Drake Student Update - Nothing this month. Margarette is enjoying summer.
- Mark McKinney – Community Liasson Officer
 - Mark introduced the new crime statistics dashboard - a walk through for all of us on how to navigate the information. That can be found here:
- Cottage Grove Traffic Study
- Community Garden Update
- The Avenues Committee
- Invest DSM update
- Habitat for Humanity – Rock the Block update
- AMOS
- Des Moines Parks and Rec
